INTRODUCTION

The Mohyal Community originally constituted the Mohyal Mitter Sabha at Lahore, on 24-05-1891. Its name was subsequently changed to The General Mohyal Sabha, Punjab and then to the present name of General Mohyal Sabha. It was first registered as a Society at Lahore in 1900. After partition of the country it was shifted to India, in 1948, and started functioning from Amritsar. For purposes of better-coordinated working, it was soon after shifted to Delhi, where it was again registered with the Registrar of Societies on 16th August, 1955 and since then is functioning as such.

Now, in order to give a wider and more effective scope, the Sabha's activities need to be extended, from time to time, so as to serve the general public, AND, hence, THIS CONSTITUTION.

THE CONSTITUTION
