

GMS ELECTIONS-2021

CODE OF CONDUCT

All brothers and sisters of the Mohyal Community are fully aware that as per GMS Constitution (15 May 2011), the Election Committee has notified the Election Schedule and guidelines for the voters and uploaded the same on the GMS website on 4 March 2021 and the code of conduct comes into force from the same date.

Your Apex Body, GMS, has been in the service of the Biradari for over more than a century. The basic objective is to help the needy and to sustain cohesion of our dear Community.

Needless to say that it becomes our bounden moral duty to rise to the occasion and facilitate the process of holding elections with desired fairness and transparency. We would sincerely urge all esteemed members to strictly follow code of conduct as given below:-

- All eligible voters should exercise their democratic right to cast their vote in the best interest of the community without any fear, favour and any exterior influence.
- GMS has rich tradition of maintaining high moral values which must be cherished by one and all, to ensure the continuity of Mohyali spirit as enunciated in our Mohyal Prayer which we all are committed to observe in our daily life and conversation.
- It goes without saying that every Mohyal is a symbol of honesty, sacrifice and dedication to the Community. The same spirit ought to be displayed and should continue to be observed always.
- All members are earnestly requested, to hold all the Mohyal Community members in high esteem and mutual respect, so as to ensure a peaceful and tranquil environment in the Community.
- It is expected that, members will desist from spreading hatred, leveling false allegations, defaming and using unparliamentary language or disturbing the smooth conduct of election process. Any violation of the Code of Conduct will be viewed seriously by the Election Committee.

Rzd K.K. Bali
Election Officer (Convener)

Dr Subhash Datta
Member Election Committee

Brig Arun Bali (Retd)
Member Election Committee