HARIDWAR TOUR BY MOHYAL SABHA KARNAL ON 27-28 APRIL 2019

The members were keen to visit Haridwar for Ganga Snan as such the sabha organized a trip to Haridwar on 27 and 28 April 2019. With the courtesy of GMS, air conditioned rooms were booked at our Mohyal Ashram Haridwar. 40 Mohyal members including ladies and children from Karnal, made the trip to Haridwar in a hired chartered deluxe bus for which a very nominal contribution was made by the participants and all other expenses including boarding and lodging were borne by Mohyal Sabha Karnal.

All members, in a very cheerful mood, departed from Karnal at 5.30 am on 27 April 2019 as scheduled. After say about one and half hours journey, we had light refreshments and cold drinks at Shamli. We had the first stop at Sukartaal, Muzaffarnagar and visited the Shri Krishna temple. The Pandit Ji present there explained the historical and religious importance of the place that, in the ancient times (say about 3000 years ago), Bhagat Sukar mediated under the Vat Viraksh and got Mooksh, and Arjuna close to Krishna explained the difference between Heaven and the Mooksh. After taking snacks and hot tea we started our journey to Haridwar. On entering Haridwar, we had to face traffic Jams which took more time in reaching the Ashram and at last we reached our Mohyal Ashram at 1.30 noon, where we were welcomed by the Manager and the staff and were given the keys of the allotted AC rooms. In the evening, after tea at the Ashram, we left at 4.45 pm for Harki Pouri for taking bath in the holy Ganga. Thousands of Yattris were taking a dip in the holy Ganga water, believing that this dip would wash all their sins. Our group also had dip in the Holy Ganga, after which we attended the evening Aarti. People floated diyas, and hundreds of floating diyas presented a very good scene which was enjoyed by everyone present there. After this event we came back to Ashram, had delicious dinner and retired for the night.

Next day (28 April 2019), members were given free time to visit the place of their choice, and to be back at the Ashram by 12.30 noon. The members had two different options, one to visit Mata Mansa Devi and the other to visit Neel Kanth. The group desirous of visiting Neel Kanth left the Ashram at 5.30 am and reached Neel Kanth at exact 7.15 am. They paid their obeisance at the temple after which we had tea at Neel Kanth and had our lunch at Ashram.

After clearing all the dues we departed for our return journey for Karnal. On our way back we had a break at Saharanpur for tea and refreshments at 4.30 pm and thereafter we started for Karnal at 5.10 pm and reached Karnal by 8.30pm. All members were satisfied with the arrangements made by the Sabha and facilities provided at Mohyal Ashram and also praised the efforts made by the organizers. The members thanked the organizers for the very comfortable trip, which was memorable one and left for their residence in a happy mood. Shri Gulshan Vaid, President MS Karnal thanked the members for their co-operation, participation and making the trip a grand success and expressed his gratitude to GMS, for all the help extended.
