OPEN FORUM

(a) Donations: GMS is a charitable organization and donations received are judiciously used for Community Projects. Donations are given by individuals purely on voluntary basis. Donations made are neither refundable nor transferable. Recently there has been a case wherein a mohyal brother has asked for refund of donations made for langar fund after more than a year of making the donation, which is ethically incorrect The House disapproved and condemned this action of an individual.

(b) Our Ashrams: Our Ashrams are our temples and it is the responsibility of each one of us to look after them. The rooms made are designed for only two individuals. However if one child above ten years is accompanying and wishes to stay in the same room, individuals will have to make additional payment ie 1.5 times of room rates. There are no extra charges for children below ten years. Consumption of liquor and non vegetarian food is not allowed in the premises of the Ashrams.

(c) Articles for Mohyal Mitter: Articles sent should be brief due to space constraints and should help the community to know each other. Would like the youth to come forward and share their views / experiences.

And the main point is to raise the funds, initially we need minimum about fifty lakhs to acquire the plot and register it in the name of our sabha, to make minimum an office with compound wall on that and the remaining we can do as and when we raise the remaining funds. Presently we have commitment for the same of 18.5 lakhs and we have F.D. of three lakhs, as and when we receive the intent letter for the plot from CIDCO we shall raise the funds from other members for that. By the Grace of god we will fulfill our dream of making Mohyal Bhawan in Navi Mumbai.

After the prayers, the Secretary welcomed the members & a special mention was made of the guests & members attending for the first time. We are fortunate to have the presence of Maj. Gen. G.D. Bakshi, Wg. Cdr. Inder Bali from Solan, Shri. PK Datta VP, GMS & Lt. Col. L.R. Vaid from MS, Gurgoan. Shri PK Datta presented bouquets of flowers to Prof. JS Bali, the eldest member of SZ, a stalwart Mohyal & truly one of the living treasures' of our Biradri, Ms. Kiran Dutta the gracious host, Shri. MM Mehta, Secy. SZMS & Gp. Capt. DC Mehta, President SZMS. The Secretary congratulated Sh. Kapil and Smt. Kiran Datta as also Col. R.N. Bakshi and Smt. Rekha Bakshi for recent addition of grandsons in both the families. Sweets were distributed by Col Bakshi.

The President said that he thought it prudent to appraise the august house of the developments that led to the unfortunate & avoidable controversy which had since emerged, as an outcome of his agreeing to the request of Shri. Sunil Vaid for hosting the July month's meeting. He also, confessed that he had accorded his consent on the premise that Sunilji had opted for SZMS membership, based on the fact that of late he was regularly attending their meetings. Moreover, it was assumed that the meeting would be conducted in accordance with the well-established traditions, wherein the host has the liberty to invite one or two personal guests. However Sunilji's invite & it's overwhelming response on MWWFace Book site came as a 'Bolt from the Blue' & took all members of SZ by surprise. The cause of concern increased manifold because of the following:-

(a) SZ monthly meeting being clubbed with function of MWW.

(b) SZ to hand over a grant of Rs. 21,000/- on behalf of the host to Naraingarh MS.

(c) Sunil Vaid depicting magnanimity by offering membership of SZ to some of his guests who desired to opt for membership, so as to make them eligible to attend the meeting.

Accordingly, an emergency meeting of the Executive Council was convened to take stock of the situation & it emerged that Shri. Sunil Vaid had not even sought the primary membership of SZ. The Secretary brought out that before any monthly meeting, the members are personally informed by him of the date or venue on telephone and confirmation sought. He stated that he has never informed or asked Sh Sunil Vaid to attend our meetings. Hence, doubts were raised as to how & who agreed for him to host a meeting.. Apprehensions were raised that 'there is much more than what meets the eye' & there appeared to be a hidden agenda, probably with an aim to grind an axe. It was decided to take immediate remedial action, inclusive of, firstly withdrawing our consent for Sunil Vaid to host the meeting, secondly, to convey the unanimous decision of EC to Shri. Sunil Vaid & thirdly to hold our meeting at an alternate venue as per the accepted norms. Shri Kapil Datta had immediately spoken to Sh Sunil Vaid and conveyed our decisions to him. The decisions arrived at, were based on the following rationale:-

(a) SZMS meetings cannot be clubbed with functions of any other organization & more so, under a banner, other than the one of SZMS. Such a step would result in setting up of a wrong precedence which in future / long run adversely damage / harm the interest of SZ.

(b) We should refrain / desist the temptation of getting involved in any inter MS donations, for it is not only beyond the charter of SZ, but also, we would be ingressing into the domain of the GMS, the apex body. SZMS being affiliated to the mother organization is conscious of the fact that it is the sole prerogative of GMS to oversee the welfare of the community at large & that, there are systems / procedures in place for discharging such like responsibilities. Moreover SZ cannot act or be treated as a mediator on behalf of individuals donating money, as wrong signals are bound to be emanated, thus tarnishing the image of SZMS.

(c) Membership of SZMS is granted in accordance with the norms & procedures set up & no deviations whatsoever are permitted. The onus of granting membership lies with the EC, which shall bear in mind the unique character of SZ whilst considering the requests for membership.

(d) We can ill afford to lose sight of the principles / aims on which the SZ has since been founded. The principles / aim being, apolitical congregation of likeminded Mohyals to work in a democratic way, so as to promote & maintain harmony, brotherhood, camaraderie amongst the fraternity at large, ensuring peace, tranquility at all cost & to avoid collision with any individual or group of individuals.

He also, drew the attention of the august body towards the unsavory reactions of some of our worthy Mohyal brothers who used some derogative, unpalatable words / phraseology. He summarized it, as being nowhere close to Mohyalati & as such, opined that reactions were clear indicators of their maturity level & of them having been emotionally surcharged, without taking the trouble to viewing it from the correct perspective. We have no intention / desire to enter into a spat with our own brothers & within the Biradri, as it would amount to violating our well defined principles / aims.

He also said he was indeed perplexed to note the level of immaturity & narrow mindedness of a few who have alleged that SZ is acting on the instructions of GMS. He advised these ill-informed brothers to kindly take note that action initiated by EC of SZ was purely of their own accord. He opined that the fallacy prevailing with regards to SZ having acted on the instructions of GMS is nothing more than malicious propaganda to malign GMS. SZ though being affiliated to GMS has its own work culture & ethos, wherein, it works independently devoid of any external interference inclusive of GMS. Also, being fair to GMS, he with all humility clarified that ever since inception of SZ (almost three decades back), GMS has never shown any inclination to interfere with working / functioning of SZ. Moreover to the best of our knowledge there is no evidence on record to prove that GMS has any tendency of being overbearing / interfering in working of any local Sabha. He felt bad on the way Shri. PK Datta, VP GMS has been unnecessarily dragged into the episode, just because of his simplicity & goodwill exhibited towards working of SZ.

With regards to membership, he categorically stated that an individual can at best only express his desire & seek membership & under no circumstances demand membership. It has been universally accepted & practiced that it is the sole decision of the organization to accept / reject the request & it is non negotiable.

He concluded on an optimistic note by reiterating that we as SZ don't subscribe to the idea of labeling any Mohyal brother as unwanted, untrustworthy & undesirable, for we treat all Mohyals to be equals & worthy sons of our great Biradri. Thus, whilst holding Sunil Vaid & other Mohyal brothers (who appear to be disgruntled with SZ for reasons best known to them) in high esteem, but we are constrained to walk their path. SZ shall never discourage / stop any of its members to getting on board with any group of individuals in their personal capacity.

Two schools of thought emerged as an outcome of the update made by the President. Firstly, whether the GMS be kept in the loop of the development & Secondly, the utility of operating SZMS site on face book. After due deliberations it was decided that with regards to the first, there is no necessity, as SZ has well established credentials with GMS & in pursuance of the practice being followed, minutes of this meeting too will be forwarded for inclusion in the next issue of MM. As regards the second issue of SZ being on FB, due to constraint of time, the issue was left inconclusive & it was decided to constitute a sub committee consisting of Gp Capt Mehta, Shri, Kapil Dutta & Ms. Ritu Mohan to deliberate on the issue & submit their recommendations for approval of the EC.

Thereafter, the house was thrown open to the members. Shri. Kapil Dutta whilst applauding the initiative taken by the President to update the house, he echoed the views expressed by President & added that, in his perception all is not well, as the intention of MWW don't appear to be honourable & they are using SZ to attain their malicious aims. So much so, in the very first interaction with the said group in the April meeting he had smelt the foul game plan & with the aim of 'nipping it in the bud' he had in most unequivocal terms had snubbed them & informed them, that SZ will not support them for they smack of being a 'Splinter Group'. However, he confessed that it was beyond comprehension to note as to why a big deal is being made out of cancelling a meeting or for the permission granted erroneously. Also, the hue & cry being made of a non issue speaks volumes of their hollowness. He also, opined that SZ has been extra good for long period & that it is time for us to pull the rug & show them their rightful place. He proposed that we ignore them from this very moment & waste no more of our time in replying to their nonsensical posts on FB. With regards to grant of membership, he reminded all present of the saying, 'first prove you deserve & thereafter express your desire', unfortunately, in their case it is the reverse, they are expressing their desire without establishing their credentials & proving that they deserve. He reiterated & laid due emphasis on the need to keep the character of SZ whilst considering fresh requests for membership.

Prof. JS Bali, apprised the house that he is singularly fortunate amongst all present for he has been closely monitoring developments since 1941 & that he is not surprised to see the obnoxious behavior of a set of Mohyals .. He advised all concerned not to get unduly perturbed since 'always 'good has prevailed over the bad'. He cited many an examples inclusive of 'Mythological' ones. He opined that there was no necessity whatsoever, for SZ to deviate from the track lay out by the founder fathers of SZ. Shri. MM Mehta, Secy clarified that SZ doesn't produce verbatim minutes as we follow the universally accepted / followed principles to keep the minutes brief & concise. Also, we make full efforts to ensure that we don't even inadvertently hurt the sentiments of our members or guests by recording unpalatable discussions that may have taken place during the proceedings of the meeting. We don't allow negativity to make inroads for we always believe in maintaining a positive attitude so as to ensuring, peace, tranquility & camaraderie. Shri. PK Datta & Lt Col LR Vaid, whilst thanking SZ for having them over, complimented the SZ for the manner in which the meeting was conducted upholding the norms of democracy.

The Secretary informed the house that a letter has been received from Sh R T Mohan appreciating the Minutes of our April 2014 meeting, particularly the views of Maj Gen G D Bakshi regarding the roots of Mohyals. He expressed his desire to develop on the Mohyal History with exchange of ideas. Gen Bakshi while endorsing the idea brought out another ancient episode about a hill of Lord Parshuram (progenitor of Mohyals) known as Parsuram Tilla near Jalandhar. More information will be sought from him. The house proposed that GMS be requested to consider taking on the project of building a Mohyal Ashram at that place, on the line of other Ashrams, being a place of Mohyal Pilgrimage

The following donations were made to the Sabha and accepted with thanks :- Prof JS Bali Rs 1100/- Wg Cdr Inder Kumar Bali Rs 501/- Sh M M Mehta Rs 500/

There being no further points, the meeting concluded by Shri Ajay Datta, placing on record a 'Vote of thanks' & appreciation of Mr and Mrs Kapil Datta hosting the meeting with their caring hospitality as ever with special thanks to Ms. Kiran Dutta, the hostess for the par excellent arrangements, inclusive of the sumptuous lunch that followed.

Neendak Nede Raakhiye, Aangan Kuteer Banaye (Power of Constructive Inputs)

Mohyals as a community are very vocal, outspoken, forthright and they always mean good of others when they point-out someone's shortcomings. However recent trend which is being observed among our brothers & sisters and as well as in other social communities that people tend to stay anonymous & use anonymity as a vehicle of abusing the others. Therefore I thought it appropriate to write this small piece on anonymity for the benefit of readers of Mohyal Mitter.

"Anonymity" was considered a very precious and benevolent gesture by particularly those people who donate to various charities silently & quietly. This has been a wide spread human activity. A benefactor may wish to improve the world, as long as no one knows who did it, out of modesty, wishing to avoid publicity. Anonymous charity has long been a widespread and durable moral precept of many ethical and religious systems.

The biggest use of anonymity has just happened in our country's general elections where people vote to elect a Government and their identities to which person and party they voted remain anonymous.

You must have noticed that various bodies who are engaged in the good of people, NGO, Govt., Trusts keep-on receiving anonymous letters which criticize the bodies & bring forth the real or fabricated truths or half truths or absolute lies to defame the others in a malicious manner without owning any responsibility.

This is done through communication as well as electronic media and the sender of such ridicule/prejudice always have some malafide intentions.

With few perceived negative consequences, anonymous or semi-anonymous forums often provide a soapbox for disruptive conversational behavior.

Anonymity may reduce the accountability one perceives to have for their actions, and removes the impact these actions might otherwise have on their reputation. This can have dramatic effects, both useful and harmful to various parties and/or entities involved, relatively. Thus, it may be used for psychological tactics involving any respective party to purport and/or support and/or discredit any sort of activity or belief.

Therefore for the benefit of the society it is better the person who passes such insinuations should come forward publicly and may be his advice, expertise is used for the betterment of the society and public at large because most of such anonymous allegations are using their negativity to cause disruption in somebody's bonafide functioning. Such people can become constructive, positive, critics and skeptics whose knowledge & wisdom can become useful to the society. Even "Tulsidaas Ji" Said "Neendak Nede Raakhiye, Aangan Kuteer Banaye".

We as a society also are facing such concocted half truths, full lies, absolute lies through anonymous letters, therefore it is requested that All The Mohyal Brothers & Sisters should not care of such a communication which is without ownership & responsibility.

Responsible people come forward in a courageous fashion to improve a lot of others, rather than remaining under the veil (Boorkha). It is a worst act of cowardice & needs to be condemned at all forums and all such anonymous letters have a fit place that is shredding machine/dust bin.

Jai Mohyal !

KARYALA-V

ITS LONELY CHHIBER FAMILY

By R.T. Mohan, Panchkula

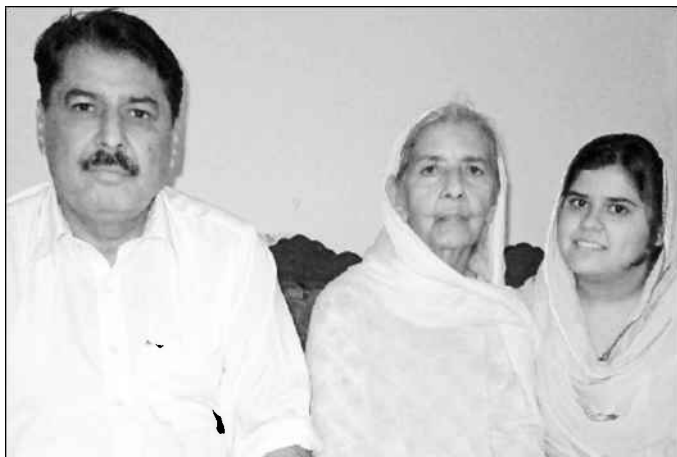

In the July Issue we had given history of KARYALA ; The Birth Place of Savants and Martyrs. In this we had mentioned that Ravinder Kumar Chhibber and his family were staying in Karyala since the Partition in 1947, looking after the Smadhi of Baba Praga and their other family estates. It is a coincidence that a story about the family - and their temples - has just been published in the DAWN newspaper of Pakistan. We reproduce the unabridged version of the article here. There have been scores of comments by Pakistanis on the internet which can be viewed at:

<http://www.dawn.com/news/1118926/chakwal-lone-hindu-family-leads-peaceful-but-secluded-life#comments>

Chakwal's lone Hindu family leads peaceful but secluded life

Ravinder Kumar with his mother Sudesh Kumari and daughter Manisha Chhiber.

CHAKWAL: "When I first went to a local college two years ago, students and teachers gave me a strange look," recalls 18-year-old Manisha Chhiber, a Hindu girl whose family lives a secluded life in Kariyala village located at the top of Surla Hill, some 10km away to the south of Chakwal city.

Manisha's family is one of the only two Hindu families living in Chakwal district (the other lives in Kot Chaudhrian village located some 40km to the west of Chakwal).

"They gave me a bizarre glance because being a Hindu I was an alien to them and such a situation always hurts me but I don't express my feeling," Manisha continues.

But in village Kariyala she and six other members of her family live peacefully and do not feel isolated.

Manisha now waits for her BCom result and wants to become an officer by passing the Central Superior Services (CSS) exam.

"Although we have mixed up with Muslim villagers in such a way that we do not feel alienated, sometimes feeling of loneliness haunts us," says Manisha's father Ravinder Kumar, the head of the family.

The family of Ravinder Kumar belongs to Chhiber clan which is one of the seven lineages of Mohyal Brahmins. Ravinder's clan has a tumultuous history replete with sufferings and bravery.

It was Baba Paraga Das, a Chhiber who laid the foundation of the sleepy village Kariyala in the 16th century and the village remained the hub of Chhibers till partition uprooted them.

As Mohyals were greatly influenced by the preaching of Sikh Gurus, they played an active role during the formative years of Sikh religion.

Many notables of Mohyal Brahmin caste remained the disciples of Sikh Gurus and they still worship Sikhism along with Hinduism.

The Aurangzeb rule was a bit hard for those Mohyals who devoted themselves to Sikh Gurus. The three revered martyrs of Sikhism Bhai Mati Das and his two brothers Bhai Sati Das and Bhai Dyal Das who were killed by Aurangzeb were also Chhibers and belonged to Kariyala village.

The three brothers were the disciples of Guru Tegh Bahadur, the ninth Guru of Sikh religion.

Their sole crime was that they supported the newly emerging Sikhism and refused to embrace Islam. The three brothers were bestowed the title of 'Bhai' and Sikhs revered them.

Later, all the Chhiber men in Kariyala village added the word 'Bhai' to their original name.

Ravinder Kumar's father Bhai Jagat Singh (who was given a Sikh name due to the family's devotion to Sikhism) was not only a landlord but also a Zaildar (an officer in-charge of a Zail, an administrative unit comprising 40 villages) during British Raj.

One could imagine how one can migrate to an alien land by relinquishing such a great social position leaving a vast agriculture land behind.

Jagat Singh never wished to migrate but when his uncle Bhai Daleep Singh was assassinated by Muslim rioters, he surrendered to other family members and set out for Delhi.

"Life in Delhi refugee camp was painful for such a man who lived a luxurious life. This forced my father to come back," tells Ravinder Kumar. But Jagat's two sons and wife refused to accompany him, he said adding that he had to return alone.

After returning from India, Jagat resettled in Kariyala and contracted a second marriage. Although he managed to preserve his land, the high social position which he used to hold before partition was lost forever. He had two sons from his second marriage - Ravinder Kumar and Surinder Kumar.

At present, Surinder Kumar lives with his elder brother Ravinder Kumar.

Living in a thickly Muslim populated society, Ravinder Kumar and his family members observe Muslim, Hindu and Sikh festivals. "On the occasion of Eid, I decorate my hands with henna as my Muslim friends do. I visit homes of my Muslim friends and they too visit my home.

On the occasion of Diwali, my Muslim friends join me in the celebration," says Manisha, but she adds hastily: "Had I been able to celebrate Diwali with my community, it would have been a different feeling."

Being a sole Hindu family in the village, they do not celebrate Holi. Ravinder also mixes up with Muslim on their rituals.

"Whenever, any of my Muslim friends dies, I go to offer his/her funeral prayer," Ravinder says.

"The old people of the village treat us in a normal and friendly way but the migrants and the youth's behaviour is always skeptical towards us," Manisha explains.

Ravinder and his family members also visit Panja Sahib and Katas Raj regularly.

Being a hub of Hindus, Kariyala had a number of Hindu temples but many of them were damaged in riots. The state of two surviving temples was deplorable till Musharraf's regime.

The local bodies system came as a blessing for Ravinder who was elected as member of the district council on a reserved seat for minorities. He managed to get some funds for the renovation of one of the temples where now he and his family members worship..

"Humanity should not be slaughtered at the altar of religion and we should take care of each other's feelings," says Manisha.

WELLNESS

KNOW VARICOSE VEINS (Lifestyle Disease)

Varicose veins that have become and tortus (twisted). The term commonly refers to the veins on the leg, although varicose veins can occur elsewhere. Veins have leaflet valves to prevent blood from flowing backwards (retrograde flow or reflux). Leg muscles pump the veins to return blood to the heart (the skeletal-muscle pump) against the effects of gravity. When veins become varicose, the leaflets of the valves no longer meet properly and the valves do not work (valvular incompetence). This allows blood to flow backwards and they enlarge even more. Varicose veins can be painful, especially when standing severe long-standing varicose veins can lead to leg swelling, venous eczema, skin thickening (lipodermatosclerosis) and ulceration. Life-threatening complications are uncommon.

CAUSES: Varicose veins are more common in women than in men and are linked with heredity. Other related factors are pregnancy, obesity, menopause, aging, prolonged standing, leg injury and abdominal straining as they all increase the pressure on the veins in the legs. Aging causes veins to lose elasticity and they swell under pressure causing it to go varicose.

SYMPTOMS: Aching, heavy legs (often worse at night and after exercise).

Appearance of spider veins in the affected leg.

Ankle swelling, especially in evening.

A brownish-yellow shiny skin discoloration, near the affected veins.

Redness, dryness and itchiness of areas of skin, termed stasis dermatitis of venous eczema, because of waste products building up in the leg.

Cramps may develop especially when making a sudden move as standing up.

Minor injuries to the area may bleed more than normal or take a long time to heal.

In some people the skin above the ankle may shrink because the fat underneath the skin becomes hard.

Restless legs syndrome appears to be a common overlapping clinical overlapping clinical syndrome in patients with varicose veins and other chronic venous insufficiency.

Whitened, irregular scar-like patches can appear at the ankles.

TREATMENT: Elevating the legs often provides temporary symptomatic relief Like using pillows, 5" at least below the feet while sleeping at night as it allows the blood to flow towards the heart.

Avoid long hours of standing and/or sitting at one place, take often walks, if possible.

The wearing of graduated compression stockings with a variable pressure gradients has been shown to correct the swelling, nutritional exchange and improve the microcirculation in legs affected by varicose veins. They also often provide relief from the discomfort associated with this disease.

The wearing of intermittent pneumatic compression devices have been shown to reduce swelling and increase circulation.

Topical get application helps in managing symptoms related to varicose veins such as inflammation, pain, swelling, itching and dryness.

Oil Massage from ankle to knee in upward motion helps as it pumps the stagnated blood to the heart and provides strength to weak valves/muscles.

Following Yoga Asanas are also effective in reducing the symptoms:

1. Taadasana, both sleeping and standing postures
2. Halasana
3. Trikonasana
4. Padottanasana
5. Shalabhasana
6. Konasana
7. Ardh Chandrasana
8. Poorna Bhujanasana
9. Vajrasana.
10. Pranayam: Kapal Bhati & Bhramri.

AYURVEDA THERAPY: Before sleeping in the night, take about 250ml of warm milk and add 1/3rd. tspn of Amee Haldi powder with sugar to taste. This is known to reduce the swelling and pain in the legs.

CAUTION: As soon as the early symptoms of varicose veins are seen, it's essential to address them by resorting to therapy. The stagnated blood in the veins may create problems of clotting and may be degenerative in nature.

Humility exalts man to the heaven of glory and power, while pride abases him to the depths of wretchedness and degradation..... Those who are the beloved of God, in whatever place they gather and whomsoever they may meet, must evince, in their attitude towards God, and in the manner of their celebration of His praise and glory, such humility and submissiveness that every atom of dust beneath their feet may attest the depth of their devotion.
